

EduHound Site Sets

WebQuests

- The WebQuest Page @ San Diego State University

This site is designed to serve as a resource to those who are using the WebQuest model to teach with the web. By pointing to excellent examples and collecting materials developed to communicate the idea, all of us experimenting with WebQuests will be able to learn from each other.

<http://webquest.sdsu.edu>

- AT&T Knowledge Network Explorer: Blue Web'n

An online library of 2035 outstanding Internet learning sites categorized by subject, grade level, and format.

<http://www.kn.pacbell.com/wired/bluewebn/>

- Education World: WebQuests

The WebQuests featured are original WebQuests, created by the editors of Education World.

http://www.educationworld.com/a_tech/archives/webquest_orig.shtml

- BestWebQuests.com

Look to this site for a matrix of the best WebQuests arranged by content area and learners' age. You'll be able to submit yours for consideration and get tips on WebQuest design.

<http://bestwebquests.com>

- WebQuests: Arranged by Dewey Decimal Classification

Offers WebQuests for grades 4-12 students covering various subjects including science, mathematics, art, mythology, and artists. Also includes teacher's resources and teaching tools.

<http://www.geocities.com/researchguide/webquests.html>

EduHound Site Sets are concise collections of resources focused on specific topics.

EduHound.com Copyright © 2007